Schemes should review their schemes in the light of Article 243G read with XI Schedule with a view to incorporating into the Schemes, the Constitutional provisions in this regard in letter and spirit. It has also been decided that the Ministry of Panchayati Raj should be consulted and their views incorporated in the notes prepared for consideration of Cabinet/Cabinet Committees in all cases relating to Centrally Sponsored Programmes/ Schemes that have a bearing on decentralization. Ministries are expected to take necessary action in this regard.

Decline in foreign tourists

†*198. DR. PRABHA THAKUR: Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) the name of the States in the country where maximum number of foreign tourists visit;

(b) whether it is a fact that the number of foreign tourists has decreased during the last three years; and

(c) if so, the reasons therefor alongwith the details of plans Government propose to implement to improve the situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY): (a) The top popular States/Union Territories amongst the foreign tourists during the year 2003 are Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal, Delhi, Rajasthan, Andhra Pradesh, Goa, Kerala and Karnataka.

(b) After witnessing a decline of 6% in foreign tourist arrivals to India during the year 2002, there has been a positive growth of more than 14% during the year 2003 and an estimated growth of 24% during the year 2004 (January-November) as compared to the same period of the last year.

(c) The September 11 incident in the USA, conflict in Afghanistan, terrorist attack on Indian Parliament, tension on Indo-Pak border and the travel advisories issued by a number of foreign Governments were the main reasons for decline of foreign tourist arrivals to India during the year 2002.
